My almost famous ...

My Almost Famous Family is a brand new all-singing, all-dancing comedy series set to strike a chord on BBC this September.

The singing and dancing Swann family are stars of the new 11-part high-energy, musical comedy series. By day the Swanns perform as TV pop group We're In Perfect Harmony; by night they're a big, blended and sometimes harmonious step-family consisting of English musician Gary Swann (Andrew Clover) and African-American soul singer Sholandra (Rakie Ayola). With five children/pop stars living, singing and schooling under one roof, viewers can expect tears, tantrums – and the occasional spontaneous musical number!

My Almost Famous Family follows the very funny ups and downs of life in a big, raucous family and the craziness that comes with fame. From stolen pigs and rock star grandads to make-or-break maths tests and crazy teen TV presenters, life with the Swanns may look glamorous on the surface, but there's a lot of frantic paddling going on underneath!

The kitchen in the Swann's household is the heart of their home and here you will see Fisher & Paykel's appliances in action: the Three Door Refrigerator (RF540ADUX1), double Designer DishDrawer (DD605FDH), Designer tower oven (OB60DDEX1), the 90cm designer rangehood (EC90DXV1) and the 90cm electric hob (CE901).

My Almost Famous Family starts on Saturday 12 September on BBC Two.
